

The story of three devils....

Will God still love me no matter what I do?

Will God still love me no matter what I do?

Yes, God will love you no matter what you do.

God's nature is love.

He cannot stop loving you.

He proved His immense love by sending His only Son, Jesus Christ, to suffer and die for your sins

Will God still love me no matter what I do?

Does this mean you can do whatever you want and then just assume God will forgive you?

Will God still love me no matter what I do?

No it doesn't.

You may develop the attitude that you can sin and not worry about it because God will forgive you some time in the future.

This attitude is the sin of presumption, that is, presuming that God will forgive us despite our disregard of his commandments.

Will God still love me no matter what I do?

No it doesn't.

You will be using God. And to use God in this way is to mock Him.

We are almost daring him to forgive us because he is so loving and compassionate.

(to mock = to ridicule, to make fun of, to deceive, to defy)

Will God still love me no matter what I do?

Always Remember:

We must drop our sins, to accept God's forgiveness.

If we hold on to our sins, we won't be able to receive this wonderful "Divine Gift".

Will God still love me no matter what I do?
